

#Won't Give It Back, India Vs Australia:

The ICC world cup, 2015 is approaching its business end. The Quarterfinals did not throw up any major surprises. To be precise, all the quarterfinal clashes ended up being one-sided affairs barring one of the greatest one-day bowling spells by valiant Wahab Riaz against Australia. All the semifinalists went into the world cup with high hopes South Africa - trying to shed the perennial chokers tag, Australia - chasing the dream of lifting fifth world cup triumph, New Zealand - only good for Semifinals tag. The surprise entry to the semifinal is India, the defending champions on whom nobody placed their bet on.

India had a torrid time on and off the field in Australia. They hardly were able to win any matches losing test matches, one-day matches against Australia as well as hapless England. There were flashes of brilliance from Virat Kohli notching up four test tons against Australia, Ajinkya Rahane ably supporting Virat and Rohit Sharma in MCG (Melbourne Cricket Ground) one-day. But the bowling seemed clueless in bowling-friendly conditions in Australia. The calm and composed Captain-cool MS Dhoni also looked out of sorts. He quit the test captaincy and retired from test cricket in the middle of the series. He failed to inspire the team which was starkly unusual.

Cometh the hour, cometh the champions. Men-in-blue got their confidence back-on-track registering convincing victories against arch rivals Pakistan and strong contenders proteas (South Africa) in the first two matches of the world cup. The team played with a purpose and the anthem "Won't Give It Back" seemed real. The Indian team's weak link, Indian bowling attack are hitting right line and length bowling out every single opposition seven times in a row. All the batsmen are in the form of their life with match-winning performances. The fielding looks sharp with Raina, Jadeja, Rahane, Kohli.

The mojo is back for captain Dhoni and attacking field settings is a testament to the new found momentum of Team India. So watch out Australia on 26th, it is not the same team which you can stroll past easily. It is a team which is vying for world cup encore, capable of beating you in your backyard, SCG (Sydney Cricket Ground).
