

MTV Indies and Live Viacom 18 presents Indie Event - SPIRO

After the huge success of Pepsi MTV Indies this year, MTV Indies and Live Viacom 18 are all set to celebrate their first birthday from April first to fourth in the financial capital of India, Mumbai. In their first stint, MTV Indies was able to create an amalgamation of various subcultures of Indian music. It has provided all the budding musicians a platform to showcase their talent. These musicians have struck the right note with the youth of the country and the increasing number in viewership is a testament to their popularity.

The first edition of 'SPIRO - An MTV Indies Takeover' marks the channel's first anniversary celebration featuring events across music, comedy and cinema. In not less than two years, LIVE Viacom18 has created close to thirteen large format properties in the field of music and entertainment, and has built iconic music properties with millions of fans across the globe.

For the first four days of April, "SPIRO" is going to take over the city of Mumbai with multiple events across comedy, movie, and music. This would be a treat for all the musical lovers out there. Contemporary Indie culture in different genres will be represented in this event to enthrall you all. The final showdown includes film screenings in Mehboob Studios, Bandra, stand-up acts by renowned comedians. The curtains will be down with an electrifying performance by Grammy-nominated electronica producer Pretty Lights.

The world's greatest Indie platform is all set to take over the city and people of Mumbai on April first, 2015 as our favorite #IndiesTurnsOneThisYear!

So get ready to dance, sing and celebrate SPIRO – An MTV Indies Takeover"" from first to fourth April, 2015 as #IndiesTurnsOne.

The wait is over! Go! Book your passes right away making no further delay.